To my prospective tax client;

Thanks for considering me for your tax preparation needs this year. I will list my professional credentials in this letter, and also want to add that as an accountant and professional musician I have worked diligently to know as much as possible about tax law as it pertains to the entertainment industry, and prepare tax returns in a professional, confidential, and efficient way. I have available for download at www.musiciantax.com an Entertainer's Tax Organizer to assist you in gathering your income and expenses; use in as much or as little detail as you deem necessary. Should you have any questions, please call me at (702) 697-0060 or email me at musiciantax@yahoo.com, as I'm always happy to talk with you about your individual tax situation.

Wishing you the best for 2009,

Donnie Castleman
